In Order To meet the objection sometimes urged against purchasing a Mill, that the times are too hard we have been induced to offer, for the PRISENT MASON

"Excelsior" Corn and Cob Mill, All complete, with two pairs of grinding rings, at the low price of Fosty Potlans, which is lower than it has or been before offered, and renders it, in our opin ever been before othered, and renders it, in our opin-jen, the cheapest Kill in America. As the farmers of Tennessee are familier with the reputation of the "Ex-culsion" it is unnecessary to enter into detail upon its merits, and we will simply remark that it is adapted to crushing Corn and Cab, Wheat, Oats, Rye, &c., for Stock, and grinding Meal for family use. It discharges the meal from one point directly into half bushet, and has its grinding aurice, in constructed that when has its grinding surface to constructed that when worn it can be removed and renewed at a cost of three dollars.

From the above our Agents throughout the State will observe they are authorized to sell the "Excelsion," the present season, for Forty Indiars.
